

Journalists, vote

Second round CSE elections, October 13 – 20, 2022

115 AFP journalists voted SUD in the first round of the workplace elections last month. Thanks to you, SUD placed second among journalists, receiving 25.90% of the vote (+7.26 percentage points). Our overall representativity among all HQ-status employees rose by 3.08 percentage points to 18.89%.

The second round of voting will determine the attribution of seats on the Social and Economic Committee (CSE), where we need to be present to defend staff and be an agent for progress.

Why vote SUD? Here's why:

To have staff representatives who are combative, assiduous and motivated
